Supreme Court.

The spring session of the Supreme Court opened at Red Deer yesterday before the Honorable Mr. Justice Leck.

CRIMINAL.

The criminal docket was not a very heavy one, but consisted of several important cases, as follows:

Rex vs Fulmer, theft.
Rex vs Lasker, assault.
Rex vs Moore, assault.
Rex vs Potter, obtaining money by false pretences and theft.
Rex vs Wedin, obtaining money under false pretences.
Rex vs Adamson, theft.
Rex vs Allen, theft.
Rex vs Holt brothers, Joe Cardinal, Louis Salway, John F. DuBois, cattle stealing.

The last case on the list of Holt, Cardinal, Salway and DuBois was adjourned to May 24th, owing to lawyers not being prepared to go on with the case, bail being refused.

The time of the court yesterday was taken up with the Lasker assault case. Lasker is charged with assaulting a German woman near Alx, named Ott, who resides with her husband and two sons, the latter preventing the man, according to evidence, from accomplishing his purpose. The prisoner's side of the story will be heard to-day.

L. C. Fulmer's case has been laid over to Saturday owing to illness.

The Firemen's Ball.

The third annual ball of the Red Deer Fire Department on Friday evening last passed off most successfully. The Lyric Theatre was nicely decorated for the occasion with flags and bunting, and a large streamer stretched across the front of the hall extended a welcome to all. The music provided by the McQueen orchestra was first class and the floor was in splendid shape. There were about fifty couples present, and all seemed to enjoy themselves to the utmost. The lunch provided by the ladies was most excellent, leaving nothing to be desired. The committee having charge of the work, together with Secretary McLeod and Chief Meeres, are to be congratulated on the success of their third annual ball, which grows in favor, and we hope will continue to be the annual event of the season.

Wedding Bells.

A pretty wedding was solemnized on Wednesday evening April 20th, at 7 o'clock, at the home of the bride's brother, Mr. W. J. Ilsey, 344, Victor St., Winnipeg, when his sister Miss Mary Ellenor was united in marriage to Mr. W. T. Coote, shoe merchant, Red Deer, Alberta.

The ceremony was conducted by Rev. Clarence McKinnon, pastor of Westminster Presbyterian church, in the presence of the immediate relatives and friends. The bride was daintily attired in a white muslin princess gown and carried a bridal bouquet of white carnations.

The bride and groom were unattended and left the same evening for their home in Red Deer. On Wednesday evening several of the boys called on Mr. and Mrs. Coote and presented them with a handsome mantel clock and a pair of dainty vases and enjoyed the hospitality of Mr. and Mrs. Coote for the evening.

A quiet wedding took place on Wednesday last, April 14th at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. John Hallgren, Springvale, when their daughter Miss Clara was united in holy matrimony with Mr. George Lawrence of Hillsdown. After the ceremony which was performed by Rev. W. K. Allen in the presence of a few friends of the family, the bridal couple and the guests of the occasion sat down to enjoy a splendid dinner. Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence have taken up their abode at Hillsdown.

A quiet wedding took place at Rev. B. Goodfield's residence on Sunday morning April 11th, when Mr. R. Brumnered, merchant, Eckville, was married to Miss Lena Snell, of the same district, and sister of Mr. H. J. Snell, jeweller, Red Deer. The young couple will have the best wishes of many friends in their new home at Eckville.

Cricket Club Meeting.

The annual meeting of the Cricket Club was held in Greene & Payne's office on Thursday evening last, and was one of the best organization meetings that the club has had for years, and augurs well for the success of cricket this year. The following are the new officers:

Hon. Pres.—Rev. C. W. G. Moore
President—H. L. Gaetz
Vice Pres.—J. S. Reed
Sec. Treas.—H. G. H. Noville
Captain—A. T. Stephenson
Vice Captain—Jas. Mann
Executive—Geo. Wilton, C. H. Chapman, F. Westgate.

The annual fee was fixed at the same as last year, namely $3.00 for town members and $1.00 for our country friends. Several new players are expected to strengthen the team greatly this season, and should result in the club upholding its splendid record of last season, and make it in better shape to meet the strong teams of Edmonton and Calgary.

Evarts.

The two sales held by Dick Bleay, on the 10th, H. Malson's, and on the 13th John Palm's, brought great prices. Cows ranged from $45 to $50. Horses were very high. Dick seems to be able to get the prices.

The farmers are getting their plows ready for seeding although up to this week there has not been much work done on the land.

Board of Education.

The regular meeting of the school Board was held Wednesday evening last; members all present. Several accounts were passed. It was decided to advertise for a teacher in eastern papers to assist Principal McLean after the holidays. The committee looking into the question of larger school grounds reported progress. Dr. George was allowed the use of the assembly room for an entertainment by the cadet corps on May 7, to raise funds for uniforms.

On Monday afternoon a special meeting of the Board decided to engage a teacher at once to assist Principal McLean in his work, and a motion was passed to that effect, and it is hoped an assistant may be secured to be on hand by May 1st.

Friday night the tank at the hospital overflowed and caused considerable excitement for a time by flooding the building with water. The tap allowing the inflow of water was left open by mistake.

This week a delegation from the inter-provincial council of Grain Growers' association of Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta, will visit Ottawa to wait on Sir Richard Cartwright and urge government control of terminal elevators. The following will represent the three western provinces: Edward J. Fream, Alberta; George Langley, Maymont Saskatchewan; Roderick McKenzie, Winnipeg Man.

Prizes for Making Butter.

The prizes given to the different buttermakers of the Government creameries, according to their scores on the 1908 output as received at the Government cold storage station at Calgary weekly were presented by the Minister at the dairy meeting last week. There were 11 prizes given out of 21 creameries, and Mr. Marker was very proud of the high scores there being not 1 1-2 per cent between the first man and the eleventh man. Mr. D. Markerborg got the Challenge Cup and the gold medal, and the other winners got silver medals. The winners were:

D. Markerborg, Markerville	95.23
J. M. Stevenson, Red Deer	95.12
A. A. Munro, Hinesley	95.07
J. A. Danglefield, Olds	95.07
J. J. Skalkity, Spring Lake	94.93
L. M. McLean, Invermay	94.92
W. H. Morris, Wetaskiwin	94.92
W. W. McGregor, Blackfalds	94.82
Fred Stenberg, Lamerton	94.81
M. B. Latam, Conjuring Creek	94.81
W. J. Beckett, Rossmore	94.10

Mr. Stevenson was first last year and second this year, a notably high standing. He is going after first next year.

In the buttermaking contest McLean was 1st, 96 1-2; Stevenson 2nd, 95 1-2; Trimble, Red Deer 3rd, 94.

Red Deer Butter and Cheese Association.

With regard to the business of the Red Deer Government Creamery, we note that for the year ending October 17th 1908 being only for a period of 26 instead of 52 weeks, on account of the institution of the regular weekly payments to the patrons, that the principal items are as follows:

INCOME.
By sales of Butter at Calgary	$29052.10
Locally and for Buttermilk	$113.27
Total	$30765.37

EXPENDITURES.
Cash distributed locally:
Cash to Patrons	$21115.70
Wages to Buttermakers	1380.73
Wages to cream haulers	142.53
Paid for Fuel	277.45
Paid to local storekeepers and tradesmen	210.41
Total	$22101.85

The above figures show that the money earned by the Government Creamery is practically all obtained from outside.

The Calgary sales being of butter shipped to distant points as Yukon, B. C. &c. while the local sale is a mere insignificant item.

In the distribution of the money earned, the same thing appears, nearly all going into the district of Red Deer.

In this particular year only $1538.00 was paid for outside supplies as Salt, boxes, liners, wrappers, cold storage charges, insurance of butter, &c. The balance of the income being paid to the Creamery Association and in turn distributed by them in Local taxes, upkeep of building and plant, Dividend and Insurance, Sals and Postage as shown in the statements published after the annual meeting.

Fine Shipment of Cattle.

A trainload of splendid cattle was shipped from Red Deer the early part of last week. U. J. Herbert, one of Pine Lake's popular ranchers, contributed 40 head to the shipment. Although a number of Mr. Herbert's cattle were two-year-olds they averaged over 1500 each, and brought him the snug sum of over $55 per head. Certainly Mr. Herbert is to be congratulated on raising such good stock, which shows that there is money in beef cattle if you get the right breed.

Re-vote on By-laws.

The re-vote on the two by-laws passed a short time ago to raise money to purchase a hook and ladder truck and property at the outlet of the sewer, will take place on Tuesday next, April 27th, in the council chamber. Through an error there was not sufficient time given between publication of the notice and voting to satisfy the law, and therefore the vote has to be taken over again. Every citizen should make his vote early.

PATRONIZE YOUR HOME MERCHANTS.

Never in the history of Red Deer have our merchants been offering greater bargains to their customers than at the present time.

To build up a good home business it is necessary that the farming community support their home town.

It does not pay any person to now send away for goods. The bargains offered through the columns of the News speak for themselves.

We do not believe any mail order house can do more for the people than is being done in Red Deer at the present time, and it is now up to the buyer to take advantage of this reduction in prices and patronize the home merchant, and place the money where it will do the most good.

A great hurrah went up a short time ago when Sir Wilfrid Laurier made some disparaging remarks about Hon. G. E. Foster. Now it might be in order for Sir Wilfrid to turn his attention to Hon. Mr. Pugsley and some of his ex-ministers such as Emmerson and others, he wouldn't have to eat so much crow as he did in Mr. Foster's case.

When the Deputy Minister of Agriculture said in his speech last week, at the dairy meeting, that the department expected the self-sustaining creameries to attend to their own affairs in the near future, a great row was kicked up. It was shown that the people of the province put great dependence on the assistance given by the government and that it would be a calamity for them to withhold their support at the present time to this most important branch of farm industry in Alberta. As soon as Mr. Harcourt saw the strong feeling he had aroused, he informed the meeting that he was only sounding them, and this move would not take place for some time. If he was looking for the voice of the meeting he got it without doubt. The weakness in the creamery system, as run individually by farmers, is in the selling, and in this respect the government can be of the greatest advantage to the people, and we hope it will be a long time before they will give up this branch of the business to the different creameries throughout the province, and when they do there is going to be trouble. As for book keeping half a cent a pound on butter is spoken of as being charged for keeping the books, which some say will pay all expenses, but even this question is open for considerable debate.

SIR WILFRID IN A NEW ROLL.

The Liberal press have hardly yet ceased clapping their hands at what they are pleased to call "the drubbing Sir Wilfrid Laurier gave Hon. George E. Foster in the House a short time ago." Mr. Foster is only an ordinary member of parliament, occupying a seat on the opposition benches. But Sir Wilfrid is Prime Minister of Canada, and is supposed to set an example to the members of the House of Commons. It was therefore a most pitiable sight to see him compelled to retract his statements made against Mr. Foster, and to apologize like an ordinary member. The Winnipeg Tribune speaking on the question, says:

Sir Wilfrid Laurier interjected into a yesterday on a public question regarding the business integrity of Hon. G. E. Foster. The latter, one of the most incisive critics and able parliamentarians, not alone in Canada, but in any legislative assembly, resented strongly the insinuations of the premier and called upon the Speaker for his ruling. Scarcely followed scene, until the premier admitted that he had committed a breach of the rules, and withdrew what he had said. That was, perhaps, the most honorable feature of the whole disgraceful business.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier, if he thinks Mr. Foster is not a proper man to occupy a seat in the commons, has a method by which he can put to the test his boasted high standards of integrity, but he has no business to indulge in fish-wife sneers, simply because he is face to face with a foe whom he cannot vanquish by fair means in honorable debate and because he has a servile, hand-clapping crowd at his back.

Suppose for a moment, Mr. Foster descended to the premier's level, and discussed alleged personal shortcomings of members and ex-members of the premier's cabinet, what would happen? The scenes would be disgraceful. Canadians would like to see men of the highest personal integrity in control of the affairs of the country, but rightly or wrongly, the public believes that parliament is a place for the discussion of the deeds done by public men in their public capacity. Heaven knows, that latitude affords scope wide enough for most sensational debate.

Mr. Foster is one of the most dangerous opponents that the government has to face in parliament. His ability is of the highest standard. The premier cannot kill him by insinuations. Mr. Foster is the last man in Canada to lie down under false accusations. He is now pursuing in the open courts men and newspapers who have questioned certain of his private acts. That is the place for such enquiry. In that connection it may be said that the men he is pursuing are using every known and unknown subterfuge to prevent an early trial.

Canada's parliament stands none too high in the estimation of Canadians. It was lowered another notch yesterday by the display of temper, conceit and petulance on the part of the premier.

Deputy Warden of Penitentiary Murdered.

Richard H. Stedman, deputy warden of the Edmonton penitentiary was murdered by one of the prisoners on Thursday last. The Journal in speaking of the crime says:

So swift and sudden was the deed, that the officials at the penitentiary were shocked beyond measure, and even among the convicts, as well as the residents of the jail, an atmosphere of horror pervaded at the startling cold bloodedness of the crime.

DETAILS OF THE CRIME.

The murder was committed in the south west corner of the carpenter shop, which is on the second story of an addition to the rear of the building. There are three carpenter benches in the room, and Barrett, together with four other carpenter convicts, was working at the benches under the supervision of Carpenter instructor Pope. Stedman, the Deputy Warden, left Warden MacCauley's office at 20 minutes past ten this morning and walked almost directly out into the carpenter shop. Entering the door he passed around the bench at which the convict was working and up to where the instructor was engaged. He leaned over the bench and began to converse with the instructor. Barrett walked around the end of the bench and stole up behind the deputy warden with the hatchet in his hand. Before the other convicts or the instructor became aware of Stedman's danger and could warn him, Barrett had raised the weapon in the air, and buried it in the deputy warden's neck.

DID NOT TRY TO ESCAPE.

Blood spurted over the bench and tools and the deputy warden fell forward into the instructors arms. Two of the other convicts rushed forward and helped to raise the wounded man, and staunch the flow of blood, while Inspector Pope ran to alarm Warden MacCauley and the guards. There was no need for the guards, however, for Barrett quickly laid down his weapon and gave himself up, making no attempt to obtain possession of the revolver or the keys of the jail, which were in the deputy warden's back pocket.

Stedman, in the meantime, was being supported in the arms of the two convicts and was gasping out a call to the warden. When the warden arrived however, blood was choking the utterance of the man, and he never spoke again. He was rushed to the hospital ward but expired in a very few moments. Barrett was taken to his cell in the main building and a guard placed over him. The customary precaution of locking up all the other convicts was taken, although on account of the snow and damp weather, none of the convicts were working outside.

STEDMAN'S WIFE TOLD.

Mrs. Stedman, the wife of the deputy warden, who is the matron of the female ward of the penitentiary, and who lives in the main building, received the news of her husband's death, through Warden MacCauley, who broke the heart rending news to her, after he had looked up the prisoners, and had the body of the unfortunate man cared for. Mrs. Stedman is prostrated with grief, and has been in bed since. She and Regina have been telegraphed for, besides her two sisters in Toronto.

THE MURDERED WARDEN.

Richard H. Stedman, the murdered official of the jail, was 60 years of age and highly respected among his brother officials and even among the majority of the convicts, who are expressing deep regret at his death. He came to the Edmonton penitentiary when it opened in July 1903, from the penitentiary at Penetanguishene, in Northern Ontario, where he has been an official for 25 years.

He is survived by his widow, and two grown sons, Thomas, in Lacombe, and Jack, in Regina, as well as a brother, Harry in MacLeod.

Only a few weeks ago two other convicts committed a desperate assault on a warden in an attempt to escape.

OVER THE FENCE.

How Women Sometimes Get Acquainted With Each Other.

The woman in 2010 had just moved in, and she was very anxious to know something about her neighbors. The woman in 2018 was curious about the newcomer. A strange coincidence brought them to the dividing fence at the same hour. No. 2010 rolled a keg up to her side of the fence. No. 2018 turned up a big toe. Simultaneously they mounted their respective elevations. Their heads met, and there were exclamations of guilty surprise.

"What were you doing 'rubbing' in my yard?" demanded 2010.

"Now, you've got a nerve!" retorted 2018. "It was you who was doing the rubbing!"

"I was just waiting to catch you, Mrs. Who-ever-you-are."

"Well, one can't be too careful about strangers."

"Is that so? Well, I'll bet your name isn't in the society blue book. Your family were no socials, you over!"

"Took! You do your own washing." There was a long lull in which the belligerents exchanged glare daggers.

Then 2010 smiled.

"I didn't just mean to hurt your feelings," she said, almost smiling.

"Nor I," hastened 2018.

"There isn't a bit of sense in neighbors always being at odds."

"It was all my fault, and I am going to apologize right away."

"Indeed, I'll not let you, then. I am going to shoulder all the blame myself. Nice way for me to welcome a new neighbor!"

"That is an awful case pigeon house on the side of your wall."

"Oh, it's just some sort of John's saw and lumber. But that is a fine after you have."

"Well, it is one of the modern kind—no dust or noise."

"I have so many children. It would be a great thing for me."

"Then you shall have it any time you ask. I am going to send you over a sample of my waffles after awhile."

"Yes, and I am going to hand a saucer of my prunes over the fence."

"You are too kind. But I want to ask you to come over tonight. John is going to give selections on his phonograph."

"I'll try, but not unless you promise to come over Sunday. Goodbye. I'll rap when the prunes are done."—Chicago News.

Wendell and parson handles to match one's pet dog were the craze in fashionable Parisian circles early in the summer, but on many of the smart parades just now handles represent a pet little rooster. So the banyard fowl must be high in favor, and the pet dog will be given a rest.

Mr. Pugsley's Argument.

Calgary Herald.

Hon. Wm. Pugsley displays a bravado under his indolent that far surpasses the record of any of those who in recent years have preceded him in similar situations.

He was a minister of the crown for the province of New Brunswick.

He is now a minister of the crown for the Dominion of Canada.

In his former capacity he is charged by a royal commission with misappropriating public funds to his private use.

The colloquial term, though not strictly accurate, is, that.

He says that as the charge does not bear on his actions in his present capacity he does not propose to worry about it.

According to Mr. Pugsley a minister of the dominion government may be proved dishonest, but as long as the dishonesty proved does not relate to his present job as a minister it does not affect his position.

The argument is refreshingly cheery. The question is whether the people of Canada will look at it the same way.

England's Butcher Bill.

Editor Red Deer News:—

Sir,—From Messrs. Weddle & Co., London, "Statistical Review" for last year, the following particulars are taken. They may possibly point a moral as well as add a tale interesting to your subscribers.

The total consumption of beef mutton in the United Kingdom last year amounted to 1,747,321 long tons of 2,240 lbs., consisting of 1,100,740 tons of beef and 646,581 tons of mutton. The home supply is estimated at 1,120,900 tons; foreign supplies total 626,421 tons.

The average price from "Vintona's Agricultural Statistics, 1909," in which the last returns available for value are for 1901, and as the fluctuations for 1907 and 1908, and taking the former averages, we arrive at the wholesale value of the beef and mutton consumed respectively to be $284,580 and $144,475,688; total, $429,055,678.

The population of the United Kingdom at forty-four millions, the consumption and cost per capita is 88 1/4 lbs. and $9.25, or 11 1/2 cents per lb. of dressed meat.

Canada's contribution to that market was 121,078 head of cattle, 12,187 sheep and 902 tons of chilled and frozen beef, allowing 600 lbs. per carcass for beef and 80 lbs. for sheep gives a total equivalent in weight to 32,757 tons, which was only 1 87-100 per cent. of the bill.

Weddle remarks that the Canadian supply continues to diminish. The shipment of cattle in 1905 was 190,815 and in 1908 it fell off to 121,078, a decline of 69,737 head—sheep from 39,321 to 12,187, but beef had increased from 267 to 902 tons.

The shipments from the United States likewise show a decrease all round, compared with the previous year of $3,751 head of cattle, 24,868 sheep, and 49,773 long tons of beef. They also draw attention to the fact that "the exporting power of the United States has materially increased in recent years, but the acquisition of freezing works in Argentina by North American operators is now beginning to counteract that shrinkage."

Australia, New Zealand, and the Argentine combined sent a slight increase of frozen and chilled beef, but less mutton and lamb compared with 1907. These countries sent beef to the equivalent of 938,860 head of cattle and 9,651,418 sheep and lambs.

The steamers engaged in this trade from these three countries number 190, aggregating a capacity in their chilled and refrigerating chambers of 304,620 long tons. The cooling and refrigerating plants attached to the abattoirs throughout these countries have a combined capacity of 5,800 tons per day with a cold storage capacity for 111,350 tons.

The refrigeration and cold storage capacity to deal with the import of meat into London is 88,250 tons. At all the other large British ports there are extensive cold storage warehouses devoted entirely to this trade.

The proportion of beef, mutton and lamb of all kinds imported from all countries to the total British consumption is 35 per cent. the proportion of chilled and frozen meat is 20 per cent.

The Argentine during the last 20 years increased her exports to the United Kingdom from 1,470 in 1880 to 576,100 head of cattle in 1908, shipped as frozen and chilled beef.

One of Dickens' characters said on a memorable occasion, "It is

Not a Family Peculiarity. "Yes, it's the odd one of the old mutton's family. Never seems to be what the others do, you know."

"I've heard," "Yes, and the strangest and queerest thing about him is," "What?" "That he stays married!"—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

To His Aunt's Daguerreotype. That quaint joke cannot cost me less than five dollars (five dollars I mean). Her flowered frock, perhaps a dress? The main part of it, as I'm sure, no more than ten; her waist of silk, as soft as sweet, five more I think. That's twenty-four. Oh, could I find a girl like that just to my mind, such hair, such eyes and such a face, such shoulders carried with such grace. No dress, so simple—or what not?—I'd kiss and woo her on the spot!—Brooklyn Life.

No Room For Doubt. Miss DeLayton—I wonder if Mr. Wiley knows that I'm an heiress? Miss Penchley—Was he attentive to you? Miss DeLayton—Of course so. Miss Penchley—Then he knows,—Chicago News.

Just Wishin'. Now, wish for the weather—The moonlight is like mine. An' the time you'll take your sweet heart To the grindin' of the cane.

When you'll feel your heart a-goin' Like a silver hammer on a anvil. An' you're takin' of your sweet heart To the grindin' of the cane.

A Natural Inference. Ho—See that pretty girl over there? She annoys me all the time by writing me letters. She really? How does she get them past the attendants?—Lippincott's Magazine.

Maid of Athens. Maid of Athens, are we parting? Never mind about my heart—Give, oh, give me back the ring And each fair, expensive thing That I sent you and each note Which in those dark days I wrote!—What the lady says indicates the damage!—Judge.

The Past Tense. "When a man gives his new automobile you must give him credit for having money." "Not necessarily. It's merely a sign that he had money."—Washington Star.

Emotional Insanity. A gay young Parisian, De Laube, long courted an heiress in vain. When he said, "Now or never!" She answered, "Never!" So he promptly, of course, went in for a divorce.

He Had. Walter—Haven't you forgotten something, boy? Dine—Great Scott, yes! My wife told me to water the plants while she is away.—New York Sun.

The Goutful Girl. The fellow was thrifty. The maiden was shifty. And she had her eye fixed on his pelf. Such a rich girl he bought. He would knock her over the head. As it made by her dear little self.—Brooklyn Life.

Too Late. Barber (after the shave)—Hair dyed, sir? Customer (baldheaded)—Yes, it died about ten years ago.—Chicago Journal.

THE REGISTERED TROTTER STALLION

"ZOMBERT" 2 29 4

Was sired by the world renowned "Zombert," 2 11, the greatest show horse and sire of extreme speed that ever lived. Besides many other great sires in his sire line, "Zombert," 2 11, world record for green mare, "San Francisco," 2 07, world's record for three year old gelding. Zombert's claim to greatness rests not alone with his sire, as his lot and 2nd dam were both great trotters and his 3rd dam was "Teresa," one of the twelve greatest mares that ever lived. Come to my barn and carefully study his tabulated pedigree, and you will be convinced he is a Prince, and son of a King. The Zomberts have sold for thousands, where other good horses have brought only hundreds. Farmers, as well as others, look to you for interests, and breed a mare or two to a Zombert while you can. For the present season he will stand for service at my barn and feed barn on Alexander Street, Red Deer, Alta., at prices within the reach of all.

The Whale.

A whale's greatest speed is from ten to twelve miles an hour.

Geldings.

When the gelding is first hatched it has no pretty color markings. It is apparently like an ordinary colt, but as it grows older, the color markings appear. It is nearly a year old that even faint tracings of its beautiful hues may be distinguished.

Morocco.

To the present day Morocco not only has no railways, but no roads of any kind except near Tangier.

Foundling Hospitals.

Foundling hospitals are very ancient. It is certain that one was established at Milan in the year 787, and in the middle ages most of the principal cities of the continent possessed one.

Earrings.

Among the Egyptians in ancient days the wearing of earrings was a badge of servitude.

Plaster of Paris.

The setting of plaster of paris may be retarded by the addition of 2 to 4 per cent of powdered silica. This addition not only retards the hardening of the plaster, but also enables it to be cut, filed, sawed and turned. An addition of 8 per cent retards the setting of the plaster for about an hour, so that the mass may be used for any purpose where it is to remain plastic during at least a portion of that time.

Russia's Famines.

Russia suffers from famine on an average every ten or twelve years.

Simple Fire Alarm.

A simple but effective fire alarm may be made by connecting two pieces of spring brass with a circuit and keeping the ends separated with a piece of beeswax, which melts and allows them to come together when the temperature begins to get too high.

The Capital.

The capital of the United States was changed nine times during the Revolutionary war.

Cochineal Insects.

How long cochineal insects live on their hosts has not been discovered. Some investigators state that the period of existence is measured by hours, while others claim that the minute creatures live for several days. All agree, however, that their life is very short.

Persepiration.

Men have been known to lose by perspiration 5,000 to 6,000 grains an hour.

Fish.

Fish contain three times as much phosphorus in their composition as quadrupeds, and phosphorus is an essential constituent of the human brain and requires renovation in proportion to the amount of work that organ is required to perform.

The Piano.

The tone of a piano is best when the instrument is not next to a wall.

Lincoln's Springfield Home.

The Springfield home of Abraham Lincoln was presented to the state of Illinois in 1862 by Robert Todd Lincoln. It was the only place of real estate ever owned by the great emancipator. The property is now open to visitors.

The French Language.

A philologist estimates that of every hundred words in the French language thirteen are superfluous.

The Mink of India.

The bird which is most expert in imitating the speech of man is the mink of India, a species of the crow family. It is a purplish black in hue, with a white patch on the wings and orange lapets on the head. When domesticated the mink is far superior to the parrot both in picking up the speech of those by whom it is surrounded and in the distinctness with which it speaks the words and sentences learned.

John Paul Jones.

John Paul Jones raised the first "flag of America" over the first man-of-war, the Alfred.

Salted Peanuts.

Take any quantity of raw peanuts in shell. Shell and then pour boiling water over them. Let stand for a few minutes, when the skins can all be removed, leaving nuts white. Place in pan, salt and butter and roast in coffee tin over until a nice brown. They are almost as nice to serve as salted almonds and can be kept for a long time in a closed jar.

Chinese Clocks.

In Chinese clocks the dials turn round, while the hands are stationary. There are two dials on each clock, one for the hour, the other to indicate the minutes.

Tying Shoes Laces.

A way to keep shoe laces tied is to make a bow in the ordinary way, then insert a buttonhook underneath the center of the bow and draw one loop and one end through (underneath), thus forming the bow practically upside down, or draw one loop through the other and pull the "asserting" end, so that the loops are knotted.

The Word "Furring."

The origin of the word "furring" of the present day construction comes from old times, when animal skins or furs were used on walls to keep out the cold and wet.

The Easter service held in Bethel Union Church on Sunday, April 11th, was conducted by E. Michener, M. L. A., assisted by Mr. E. Willson of Red Deer. A good congregation was present and greatly appreciated Mr. Michener's sermon. We hope he will be with us again before long. The entertainment on April 12th was a huge success. A good programme of vocal and instrumental music, recitations, speeches and Easter eggs helped to pass away the time. Refreshments were served at the close of the programme.

Man killed at Lethbridge.

Fell 300 Feet.

The Lethbridge Herald of Wednesday last April 14th said: The first fatality on the big bridge occurred this morning at 9 o'clock when William Smith fell off the floor space and dropped a distance of 300 feet to the ground. Death was instantaneous.

The body was badly crushed, practically every bone being broken. All the limbs were broken in one or more places. The remains were hastily removed to Fetterly's undertaking parlors where an inquest will be held this evening when the coroner arrives from Cardston.

The deceased was twenty four years of age and lived at Hamilton, Ontario, where his wife and four small children now are. A baby boy came to the home a few weeks ago. A message has been sent to his father who will have to convey the sad news to the young wife. The body will be shipped to Ontario to-morrow night.

The deceased was well known in athletic circles in the city having been a player in the Y. M. C. baseball team last summer. He was popular among the bridgemen and was one of the best workers.

It is unlikely that work will be resumed on the bridge this week.

Conflicting Reports of Ice Jam at Niagara.

Buffalo, N. Y., April 14.—A special to the Times from Lewiston says the ice in the Niagara gorge has settled ten feet in the past 24 hours and shows that several of the docks have been wrenched from their moorings and that the damage will be more serious than has been suspected. On the other hand it would appear from a statement of Supt. Nickles of the Niagara Gorge Railway, that the damage to their property is not so serious as he believed. Mr. Nickles says he expects to have cars running between Niagara Falls and Lewiston by May 1st. A gang of 500 men are engaged in clearing the ice from the tracks.

Correspondence.

TO THE FARMERS OF THE RED DEER DISTRICT:

It is not our intention to dictate to you the necessity of taking advantage of every hour of sunshine in order to have your crop in at the earliest possible date, but we do wish to draw your attention to our advertisement on drills in another column.

From experience gleaned from agricultural experts and from conversations with those who are in a position to know, we are convinced that Farm Instructors and those making a study of crop conditions, we are convinced that by using a Drill great advantages are obtained, and with this end in view we have induced our competitors to allow us to place Drills upon very easy terms in order that every farmer may have his own Drill, and thus be in a position to rush his crop in with the least possible delay.

We have still in stock seven Drills of an off size. These we are prepared to sell at reduced prices, and on terms specified in our ad. It will pay you to call and talk the matter over with us.

Yours truly,

SHERIFF'S OFFICE, April 19th, 1909.

DRILL, YE FARMERS, DRILL!

In order to take advantage of the first day that is fit to seed, it is necessary to own a Drill of your own. We are prepared to help you. Realizing the lateness of the spring, we have decided to expedite matters by letting you have a Drill on what is commonly known as "next year's terms." All we ask this year is the cost of our freight, which is from twenty to twenty-five dollars, and the balance in two yearly payments, namely, Dec., 1910, and Dec., 1911. Experience teaches us that under the circumstances the crop will require all the nursing possible to put it ahead of the frost and fall snowstorms. What is twenty dollars compared to frozen oats, or a snowstorm before your crop is cut? A Drill will gain a week's earlier ripening. Our present prices and terms can not be ignored. Call and investigate for yourself. Satisfaction guaranteed.
